

HAMPTONS

Sightings: Ryan Gosling and Family in East Hampton; Mike Myers at Sotto Sopra

July 11, 2013

My first sighting during the star-jammed week of July 4 was Sir Ivan Wilzig's meat in my Fresh Direct order. How Fresh Direct confused Wilzig Castle with my shingled shack in East Hampton, I have no idea, but his name was stamped on the paper packaging. Delicious sliced kosher meat. Good taste, Sir Ivan.

On Sunday, June 30, Julie Andrews—just back from performing in Brisbane, Perth, Sydney, Adelaide and Melbourne—tucked into lobster at Madison and Main. Same venue, by the way, Roger Waters had soft shell crab while joining Christie Brinkley and Billy Joel.

Monday, July 1, also at Madison and Main, Matt Lauer, Alan Alda, and Andy Cohen paired soft shell crabs and Bertaud Belieu Cuvée Prestige Rosé. And Joy Behar went for the one and a half pound lobster at Bostwick's.

Tuesday, July 2, Jerry Seinfeld and Andy Cohen tucked into Rowdy burgers and a side of pickles at Rowdy Hall in East Hampton. And Jersey "Real Housewife" Dina Manzo chose seafood at Madison and Main in Sag Harbor.

Wednesday, July 3, Hugh Jackman hit Bobby Vans. And Sports Illustrated swimsuit issue model Ariel Meredith hosted the Voss Foundation Benefit at Georgica in Wainscott. The organization provides access to clean water in Sub-Saharan Africa. Meredith wore a sparkly dress by Ralph Lauren that she claimed she'd actually bought. "The foundation means a lot to me," she said. "It's definitely changing lives."

Also at Georgica, 2012 Miss USA Nana Meriwether, who has her own foundation, wearing Bebe. "I do a lot of work in Africa," she said. "If you don't have water, it consumes your day, women walk miles and miles." Meriwether attended with Al Gore III. They were staying with Alex Soros, a friend of Meriwether's from back home in Potomac, Maryland. Yup, technically, Gore may have been a guest of guest.

Saturday, July 4, at the Stadiumred Estate's Blue + White Party, Dina Lohan apparently got the memo and wore blue. She put her hand over the face of photog Rob Rich when she saw him, saying, "You!" Guess she didn't want her photo taken. Also spotted Danny Green of the San Antonio Spurs and Sir Ivan Wilzig. Didn't bring up the meat (see above). And supermodel Erin Heatherton looked super at Surf Lodge in Montauk.

Friday, July 5, Ryan Gosling in white pants and a plaid shirt at East Hampton Point with mom and family. Speaking of meat, Gosling ordered steak and kindly penned an autograph for his server. Same night, Sir Paul McCartney hit Nick and Toni's, as did Alec Baldwin. NBA star Isaiah Thomas tried Georgica, while Mike Myers and wife Kelly Tisdale opted for Sotta Sopra's homey Italian kitchen.

Saturday, July 6, talk about an endorsement, Myers and wife return to Sotta Sopra. New York governor Andrew Cuomo and his gorgeous gal pal Sandra Lee dined at Nick and Toni's. And Countess LuAnn de Lesseps kept her highly prized reservation at Madison and Main in Sag Harbor. Also spied not one, but both Winklevoss twins at Surf Lodge.

And on Sunday, July 7, Richard Kind tested the clam chowder at Rowdy Hall. Later that night, Chevy Chase and his wife enjoyed turkey burgers. Gobble, gobble.
